Employee Handbook & HR Policy

Version: 1.0

Effective Date: 1 August 2026

1. Working Hours

Office working hours are 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday to Friday.

Employees are expected to complete 40 working hours per week.

Flexible working hours may be approved by the reporting manager.

Employees must be available during official working hours.

2. Attendance Policy

Employees must mark attendance using the company attendance system.

More than 3 late arrivals in a month may result in a warning.

Continuous absence for 3 working days without informing the manager may be treated as job abandonment.

Attendance records are reviewed monthly.

3. Leave Policy

Casual Leave (CL)

Employees receive 12 casual leaves per year.

Maximum 2 consecutive casual leaves can be taken.

Casual leave cannot be carried forward.

Sick Leave (SL)

Employees receive 10 sick leaves per year.

A medical certificate is required if sick leave exceeds 2 consecutive days.

Earned Leave (EL)

Employees receive 18 earned leaves per year.

Maximum carry forward allowed is 30 days.

Maternity Leave

Female employees are eligible for 26 weeks of paid maternity leave.

Paternity Leave

Male employees are eligible for 10 working days of paid paternity leave.

4. Work From Home Policy

Employees may work remotely up to 2 days per week with manager approval.

Interns are not eligible for regular work-from-home unless approved by HR.

Employees must remain available during official working hours while working remotely.

Company devices should be used for remote work whenever possible.

5. Dress Code

Business casual attire is expected during office hours.

Fridays are designated as casual dress days.

Clothing should always remain professional and appropriate.

6. Code of Conduct

Employees must:

Treat colleagues with respect.

Maintain confidentiality of company information.
